

5 COTTON NIGHT SUITS THAT ARE A MUST-HAVE THIS SUMMER SEASON

Some of the most soul-satisfying experiences for a girl are unbuttoning a pair of itchy jeans after a stomach popping meal, unhooking a bra that's been digging into the skin, and slipping into a comfortable night suit after a grueling long day... Don't you agree? Night suits have gotten closer to us girls ever since the start of the pandemic... life was oh so much easier when we had to deal with constant calls, nagging clients, and time-defying deadlines all in the comfort of our night suits. Honestly, it brought easy-breezy comfort to our multitasking lives...

THINGS TO KEEP IN MIND BEFORE PURCHASING YOUR NIGHT SUITS

FABRIC CHECK IS A MUST

Yes there are countless styles and fabrics available in the market, yes satin and silk feel sexy and smooth, but let's get real here for a minute, it feels almost like 100 degrees outside, do you really want a fabric that clings to your skin? No right... Summer is all about cotton baby! You need to invest in premium quality organic cotton night suits that allow your skin to breathe. Let's list the benefits of choosing cotton, it won't stick to your skin, it absorbs the moisture and leaves you less clammy, it's a pretty sturdy fabric that has fewer chances of tearing, and the more it is washed the softer it becomes. Need I say more??

THE SIMPLER THE BETTER

The more simple your night suit, the comfier you feel. Avoid purchasing nightwear that comes with a lot of embellishments and sequins and other prickly things that might sting you while you're sleeping. Even though they may look more appealing and make you look good, that's just temporary, because when you sleep all you want is a soft cushioning feel, you don't want to wear anything that disrupts your sleep every 5 minutes. Hence it makes sense to steer away from such night suits with too much lacework or big buttons.

CHOOSE A COMFY FIT

Tight sleepwear is a bold NO!

You've just had a long day, you've just got out those itchy thick jeans, and your body has just battled it out with your bra straps, why put it through more torture by wearing tight sleepwear. At night you need to let your skin breathe, it has to unwind after a tedious day, and if you wear anything tight when you sleep it might chafe your skin. So it's best to wear something that is slightly airier and looser for maximum comfort. When it comes to sleepwear, sizing up is always recommended.

COLOR IS CRUCIAL

Color too plays an important role, when it comes to selecting your nightwear. In summers when temperatures are soaring to 40 degrees, you don't want to pick colors like fiery red and rich purple. These dark shades make you feel even hotter, you want to go for soothing light hues like blue, pink, green, white, etc. Minimalism during the summer season works best especially if you want a good night's rest!

After a long hard day, the bed is your personal space, your sanctuary where you unwind and relax so it's important to find maximum comfort. With these cotton-printed night suits in your wardrobe, you'll be all set to enjoy your nights all summer long.
